Dear Federal Election Commission,

This letter is a response to the correspondence I received from your office, Reference: Verification of Form 1, dated March 16, 2022; as well as our phone conversations on March 23, 2022.

It is my understanding that the central reason for the communication was concerning the name of the SuperPAC. Our organization is specifically targeting individuals who either currently don't participate meaningfully in American politics and/or individuals who participate in a manner that is unproductive or even counterproductive. It is our belief that you must speak to these people with authenticity to engage with them.

As a result, our name was chosen to overcome this challenge. It is descriptive of who we are and what we do. It flouts convention and political norms. It's a bit edgy. It's a bit funny. Plus, the alliteration of SPSP is quite satisfying.

All this having been said, we apologize for any inconvenience or extra work this has caused you. We are huge fans of our civil servants, and we thank you for your time and attention regarding this matter.

Additionally, included with this letter is FEC Form 1, which should have arrived before my original letter but did not.

Thank you,

Casey Carbonneau, Treasurer
